Who We Are...

The RPCC is a neighborhood group of volunteers working together to create a safe, strong and friendly community. Originally established in 2003, the RPCC is a non-profit 501c3 organization open to residents, businesses and employees in Rolando Park.

What We Do...

We meet to discuss issues important to the neighborhood.

We provided a forum for members to interact with local government representatives.

We represent our interests on issues important to our neighborhood.

We distribute a quarterly newsletter:

- ◇ Hand delivered to 1,300 households by volunteer block walkers
- ◇ Emailed to members.
- ◇ Available on our website: rolandopark.org
- ◇ Posted on "Nextdoor" at: rolandopark.nextdoor.com

What We Have Accomplished...

- ◆ Recognition of Rolando Park as a separate neighborhood by SDPD
- ◆ Sidewalks on Racine and College Grove Drive
- ◆ Westbound Freeway 94 College Ave traffic light
- ◆ Fencing at Zena Canyon
- ◆ Street trees for Rolando Park
- ◆ Stop signs
- ◆ Neighborhood Watch signs
- ◆ Utility undergrounding and upgrading water and sewer lines
- ◆ Zena Canyon Clean-ups
- ◆ Building Strength and Community in Rolando Park Grant from The San Diego Foundation

We invite you to...

Join the RPCC. At a cost of $12 per year per household, your dues support the cost of publishing the newsletter, paying for liability insurance, for state required non-profit corporation costs, and for post office box rental. Membership form on the reverse of this brochure. You can also join on our rolandopark.org website and use PayPal .

Attend our monthly meetings, usually the second Monday of the month, September through June, 7pm at Rolando Park Elementary School, 6220 Marlowe Drive. All are welcome to attend; only members can vote on issues or in elections.
