Community Updates & Events

- Lynn Edwards announced that our Treasurer Cheryl Bailey's and Secretary Kara West's two-year terms ended December 31 and both have stepped down; we are recruiting for a new Treasurer and Secretary.
- RPCC and Circulate San Diego will be conducting a Walk Audit in the community on Tuesday, January 23, at 2pm.

Information item

Discussion on new outpatient opioid treatment center in Rolando Plaza later this year. The facility director Marc Gonzalo joined us for an extensive Q&A.

Action item

Tabled until February meeting due to lack of time.

Information from Zoom chat

Marc Gonzalo, MA. SOAP MAT, LLC: mgonzalo@soapmat.com

Mia Maranion: How many patients does the clinic expect to help on a daily basis?

Jennifer Bennett RVCC: How long is your contract with the county?

David Ogul: What hours will security be working?

Vickie Church: The facility should confirm who the property owner is for the alley behind the bldg. If it is private property, there should be a plan in advance to deal with encampments in the area. No waiting 2-3 weeks for NPD to respond.

Kate Kern: Suggestion for clinic: when providing directions to your location, please have your staff suggest to clients to take College to University Avenue.

Bettina - Redwood Village: 2nd part of my question was: where are majority of patients referred from?
